

The 13th Interdisciplinary Conference, ORT Braude College

25-26 October 2017, Nahsholim Seaside Resort

Keynote Speakers

Mr. Doron Almog

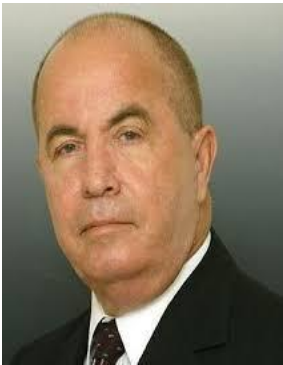

Chairman of the rehabilitation village of Aleh Negev Nahalat Eran

Doron Almog is a Major General in the IDF Reserves, served as Southern Command Commander. Almog is a social activist for people with mental disabilities combined with additional burns, Chairman of the rehabilitation village of Aleh Negev Nahalat Eran. Winner of the Israel Prize for a special contribution to society and the State for the year 2016.

Professor Israel Borovich

Dean of the School of Management and Economics at the Tel Aviv-Jaffa Academic College

Professor Israel Borovich is an Israeli businessman and academician. Served as a professor of management and information systems at Tel Aviv University and served as dean of the School of Management and Economics at the Tel Aviv-Jaffa Academic College. He was Chairman of EL AL's Board of Directors until November 2008

Professor Chaim Gutfinger

Professor Emeritus, former holder of the IDB Chair in Energy at the Technion – Israel Institute of Technology, Haifa

Chaim Gutfinger, received his Ph.D. from Yale University. He is Professor Emeritus and former holder of the IDB Chair in Energy at the Technion. He served as Dean of Mechanical Engineering (1977-80), Vice Provost for Development and Deputy Senior Vice President of Technion (1996-2002), and President of Ort-Hermelin Engineering College (2006-13).

Mr. Yair Kamm

R&D Engineer. IMI-Systems (former the Israel Military Industries Ltd, Rocket System Division)

Yair Kamm is an engineer at IMI-Systems for nearly 20 years. B.Sc. (99) & M.Sc. (06) at Tel-Aviv University. His thesis was at optimization of Solid Rocket Motors for Launch vehicles. Research area & publications: Propulsion & Solid Rocket Motors.